Let yourself be surprised by this 100% never-failing wine made with the grape variety Alicante Bouschet.

The macerations are delicate in order to extract the fresh varietal aromas that round accompaniment the taste of oak during aging. The resul is this rebellious wine; nonconformist and impressive both visually and on the palate. Perfect for resolute souls, for people who even thogh they don´t have a fixed objeive they know exactly where they are going.

Did you know...? The name comes from the last film that David Corradine appeared in as a cowboy. “ Bala Perdida ”.
